The Google Business Video Verification Trap

Why Your Google Business Profile Verification Video Keeps Getting Rejected (And What to Double-Check Before You Try Again)

A FREE resource from Ideal Digital Agency

If your Google Business Profile Video was Rejected, You're Not Alone

It's one of the most common frustrations business owners face. Questions like "Why was my video rejected?", "What did I do wrong?" and "Why won't Google tell me what failed?" come up every day. The good news? Many rejections are caused by a handful of common mistakes. Review this checklist before recording another verification video. You may discover the issue that's been preventing your business from getting verified.

⚠ Before You Upload Another Video...Check These First

- ☐ Not recording live within Google's verification process
 - ☐ Recording from inside your parked vehicle
 - ☐ Never entering the building location.
 - ☐ Fast, shaky or blurry video
 - ☐ No proof the business operates there.
 - ☐ Recording after dark.
 - ☐ Not showing the business address
 - ☐ Missing permanent signage or vehicle signage for a Service Area Business
 - ☐ Uploading a pre-recorded video.
 - ☐ Choosing the wrong business type

You've Completed the Checklist. What's Next?

If you checked one or more of the items above, you may have identified why your Google Business Profile video verification was rejected. Reviewing these common issues before recording another video could save you time, frustration, and another failed attempt.
